E. S. BOYD'S LAND DISCUSSIONS

The Wilcox Leper Bill Will Not Pass—Delegate at the Queen's House.

(Special to the Advertiser.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 29.—Hon. "Billy" Hoogs, of Honolulu, departed a few days ago for Philadelphia and New York, where he expected to meet Mr. Rodiek, of Hackfeld & Co., Honolulu, and whence he will travel to Minneapolis and Seattle, before proceeding to San Francisco and to the Hawaiian Islands. His friends persuaded him to break into one of the local prints, the Evening Star, with the following:

Mr. W. H. Hoogs, a member of the first Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii, from the Fourth District, has arrived in Washington en route for New York. He will remain at the national capital for several days. Discussing the conditions now obtaining in the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. Hoogs today said:

"Our people are deeply interested in the proposition to apply the present United States land laws to the Islands, and there is much opposition. The land laws of the United States are not applicable to the conditions in Hawaii for the reason that there are no large areas of public land at the disposal of the territorial government. If the United States land laws were applied in Hawaii it would work endless confusion and tend to have the remainder of the public lands pass into the hands of a very few owners, as there is not enough arable land on the Islands to provide homesteads of 160 acres each to those desirous of acquiring such rights.

"The country is of volcanic formation and is broken up by numerous mountains and ravines, the greater part of it being like Bill Nye's 'perpendicular farm,' standing on edge. Our land problem is a most serious one, and the bill now before Congress will, in my opinion, prove a source of much litigation, should it become a law.

"We will never get what we are entitled to until Congress sends a commission to the Islands to look into and thoroughly investigate the conditions. Should this Congress send a commission headed by such a man as the present land commissioner, Mr. Blinger Herman, who has had a number of years' experience in the adjustment of land controversies, I am sure, would get such a recommendation to Congress that would enable us to get a land law that would be thoroughly satisfactory to the citizens of Hawaii, and enable us to fairly and impartially apportion the remainder of our public lands.

"Any land laws that may be enacted for us should have special features looking to the preservation of the present forest land and the planting and caring for new forests that are so essential to the future welfare and the development of the Hawaiian Islands."

Mr. Hoogs declined to discuss the rumored possible change in the head of the Territorial government.

"I saw Governor Dole only a few days before I departed," he said, "and I never saw him looking better." Concerning the general conditions of the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. Hoogs said: "We are having a great deal of trouble because of the shortage of labor. We cannot begin to farm our lands for lack of labor. Chinese, Japanese, Portuguese and negroes, make up the laboring element of the Islands to a very large degree.

"The past year has been a bad one for Hawaii. Probably not half a dozen sugar plantations have made money, owing to the scarcity of labor. It has been hard to borrow money because of this, and the Territory suffered thereby. Then the low price of sugar has had its effect.

"The United States government is making preparations for a great amount of work building wharves. The naval reservation is certainly a credit to the United States. There are no finer navy wharves in the world than those at Honolulu, which were constructed under the direction of Captain Merry.

"The dredgers for deepening the bar at Pearl Harbor are no doubt at work by this time. Everything was being gotten in readiness about the time I sailed. The dredging is the beginning of operations at Pearl Harbor, which will include the navy yard and coaling station."

While he was in Washington Mr. Hoogs talked with lots of people about Hawaiian affairs, especially with men prominent in public life. He had a long chat with Commissioner Herman about the land bill which Mr. Wilcox introduced, and learned something of that gentleman's wishes. Mr. Herman is not friendly to the Wilcox measure, and it is safe to say that he will not recommend any radical provisions.

In that connection it is probably opportune to say that those people of Hawaii who recognize the impracticability of the Wilcox bill, are not helping their cause at all by having so many fingers in the pie. Land Commissioner Boyd, who came here under specific instructions from the Territorial authorities as to his program and method of procedure, is working conscientiously, but it is no discredit to him to say that exactly what his superiors in office in Hawaii desired was assured before he came. Often there is a great deal of letting a subject alone here in Washington. Agitation and publicity often defeat the very ends desired. In the view of some Hawaiian people here, who want exactly the same thing that Mr. Boyd wants, he has not been following his instructions, and has been endangering the situation, which was secure, by calling attention to it anew and stirring up the members of the committee, who supposed that it was pigeon-holed for good.

Those who oppose the Wilcox bill have convinced themselves that the department officials and heads of committees in Congress do not sanction its provisions and, if they favor any action at all this session, will favor the sending of a commission to the Islands to inspect the situation. Unless the bill is agitated too much, it might happen, in fact, probably would happen, that Congress would do nothing at all on the subject this year.

As far as the Wilcox bills for county organizations and schools are concerned it can be stated that neither of these bills will see the light of day in this Congress, unless something very radical happens to change the situation. The leper bill, as was stated in a previous letter, has no chance in the world of passage. All those measures are being carefully looked after and assurances have been given that their slumbers will not be disturbed. The details of such matters can not wisely be stated, but those who know the intricacies of legislation at the Capitol, will understand.

I have had no opportunity to discuss with Delegate Wilcox the authorship of the school and county bills. He has been too ill to receive callers. A few days ago he had sufficiently convalesced to move to the residence of ex-Queen Liliuokalani, on O street, near Twenty-first, and there he is making rapid progress towards recovery. Moreover, he has there more kindly care and attention than would be possible at his own apartments on H street, where he spent the greater portion of his serious illness.

NUMBERS OF WATCHES come in daily requiring our attention, and receive it to the lasting satisfaction of the owners; and why not YOURS?
